Invitation to a Community of Practice Forum

Date            Friday 9 August 2013
Time            9.30am to 4.00pm
Venue           Room 1.10, Level 1
                      Department of Health
                      50 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne (map overleaf)

Lost in grief

Keep abreast of the latest developments in grief and bereavement, share issues and ideas, network with colleagues!

This dynamic and interactive forum will:

- Focus on cumulative grief and it's impact at the end of life
- Discuss grief issues related to refugees and immigration; bushfires; aged care; prisoners; disability; and child carers.
- Identify practical strategies to use in your work
- Link discussions with the Victorian bereavement support standards for specialist palliative care services
- Identify ways to support and enhance your practice
- Provide you with an opportunity to contribute your ideas for future Community of Practice Fora.

Who should attend?

This forum is open to those who have an interest in providing enhanced care for those who are grieving. For example, aged care and disability workers, community nurses, general practitioners, palliative care staff and volunteers, refugee workers, and justice staff.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided

There is no charge to attend this forum.
